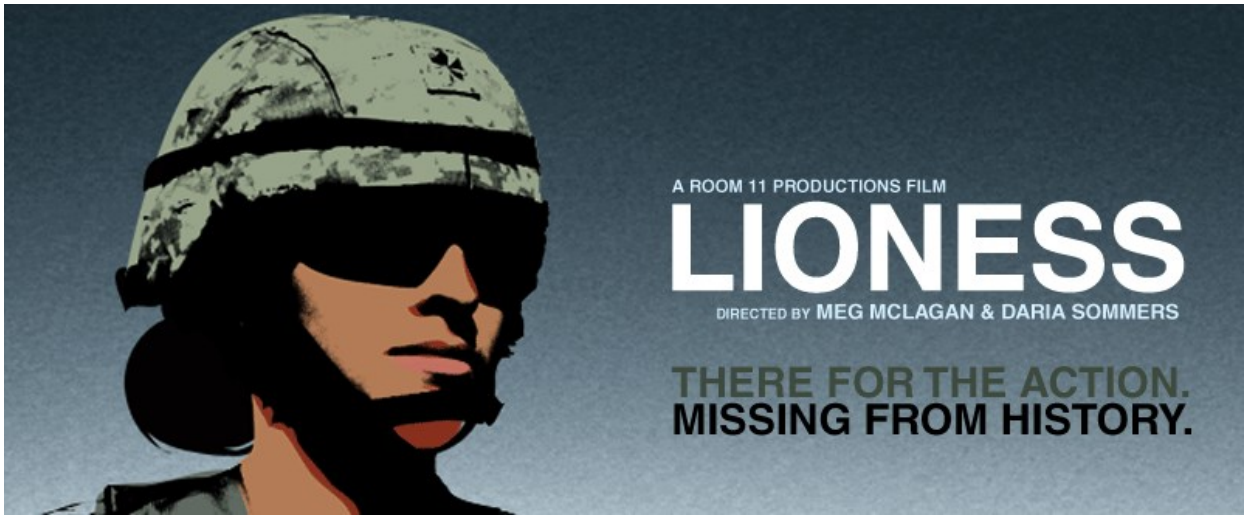
LIONESS

This powerful documentary by Meg McLagen and Darie Somers shares the hidden history of the female support soldiers known a Lionesses who were part of the first women in American history sent into direct ground combat, fighting in some of the bloodiest counterinsurgency battles of the Iraq war, returning home as part of this country's first generation of female combat veterans.



SPECIAL GUEST—Jessica Miller

Miller was the original Lioness prototype, the first female to do missions by herself for the Army and Marines. Later, she was partnered with Morgan (featured in this documentary). Eventually, the demand was so great that the Lioness Team was built.
