

WINTER READING BINGO 2023

DECEMBER 4 - MARCH 2

A picture book	A book about a winter sport	A book about food	A book in verse or a book of poetry	A book with an bear on the cover
A book set during the Civil Rights Movement	A book set in Oregon	A book about an inventor	A book by a Black author	A mystery
A book where money plays a role	A book by an Asian American author	FREE SPACE (YOU CHOOSE THE BOOK)	A book set outside the United States	A book set during the Revolutionary War
A book about a celebration or holiday	A book from the new nonfiction shelf	A book about gratitude	A fantasy or science fiction book	An award-winning book
A book about surviving in the wild	A book about a road trip with family/friends	A book with a winter scene on the cover	A book recommended by a librarian	A book about a historical figure who helped to change the world

Circle one: child/teen/adult

Contact:

Name:

Circle one: child/teen/adult

Contact:

Name:

Circle one: child/teen/adult

Contact:

Name:

Circle one: child/teen/adult

Contact:

Name:

Circle one: child/teen/adult

Contact:

Name:

Read your way through the winter at the Coos Bay Public Library. It's easier than ever to compete using this bingo sheet.

Pick up a game sheet at the Coos Bay Public Library or complete online.

❄️ All entries must be received by Saturday, March 2 ❄️

2024 WINTER READING CHALLENGE DECEMBER 4 - MARCH 2

ALL AGES!

Complete bingo squares by reading or listening to the type of book indicated and write the title you read in in the square. Earn a prize for the first row you complete and be entered into a grand prize drawing.

Complete more rows for more entries for the grand prize (maximum five entries per person).

Grand prizes include LEGO or DUPLO sets and cool library-designed gift bags.