The House in the Cerulean Sea by T.J. Klune

"Linus Baker is a by-the-book case worker in the Department in Charge of Magical Youth. He's tasked with determining whether six dangerous magical children are likely to bring about the end of the world.

Arthur Parnassus is the master of the orphanage. He would do anything to keep the children safe, even if it means the world will burn. And his secrets will come to light.

The House in the Cerulean Sea is an enchanting love story, masterfully told, about the profound experience of discovering an unlikely family in an unexpected place—and realizing that family is yours." -MacMillan Publishers

"I loved this book because of the mischievously lovable characters. It had hilarious moments while still telling a serious story about social justice. Magical, heartfelt, my favorite read of 2020!"

DID YOU KNOW? CURRENT BUILDING FAQ

But wait, there's more (leaks, that is).

The library's newest leak appeared recently in the Myrtlewood Room, the library's large meeting room. Unfortunately, the size and location of the leak (located in the center of the room) likely means we will be unable to both hold library programs in this space and offer the room as a meeting space to the public going forward. The library does not currently have an alternative large meeting space to use in place of the Myrtlewood Room. To find out more about this issue and the other critical issues the library is current faced with, visit our Current Building FAQ page on coosbaylibrary.org.
