The above participant will be participating in a cut-paper art seminar taught by Elizabeth Goss on the date noted. The seminar will involve the use of sharp tools, such as scissors for participants under the age of 13 and precision knives and similar tools for participants over that age. While we strive to avoid injuries, there is always the small risk of injury or damage which may reasonably arise from the use or misuse by the participant or other participants of sharp tools or implements including, but not limited to cuts, pokes, and torn or cut clothing.

The undersigned, either for themselves or for their minor participant, represent and state that they understand the potential risk of injury or harm associated with the use of sharp implements in art projects and that safe participation in the seminar is within their capabilities or those of their minor participant. The participant or the parent or guardian of the participant hereby knowingly, voluntarily and absolutely releases and agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Elizabeth Goss d.b.a. Elizabeth Goss Illustration & Design from and with respect to any and all injury, harm, damages, liability, suits or loss of whatever kind arising out of the participant's participation in the seminar.
