

Coos Bay Library presents

LYNCHING IN AMERICA

Presentation by Taylor Stewart, founder of Oregon Remembrance Project

During Jim Crow, nothing sustained racial inequality quite like lynching. We, as a society, must confront this history!

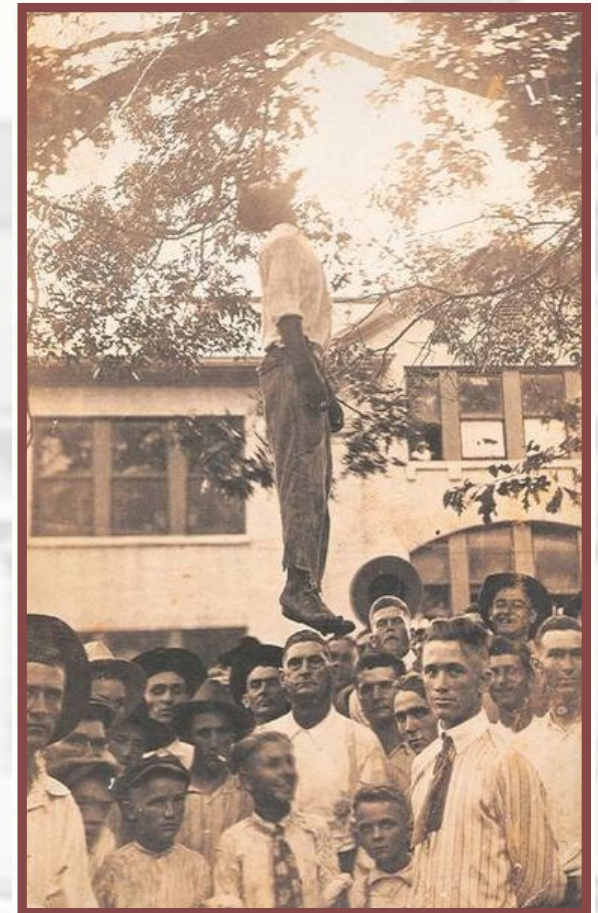

Stewart will discuss:

- History of lynching
- How we can find restorative justice
- How lynching is still a relevant topic today

Taylor Stewart's been working to memorialize Oregon's only recorded victim of lynching, Alonzo Tucker who was killed in Coos Bay

Wednesday
August 26
6:00pm

Register for this virtual event
@ <https://is.gd/pyRkf7>

Postcard depicting lynching of Lige Daniels, Center, Texas, USA, 1920. The back reads, "He killed Earl's grandma. She was Florence's mother. Give this to Bud. From Aunt Myrtle."

COOS BAY
PUBLIC LIBRARY

(541) 269-1101

<http://coosbaylibrary.org>

Free program on Zoom!