CBPL STAFF PICKS

House of Hollow by Krystal Sutherland
Seventeen-year-old Iris Hollow has always been strange. Something happened to her and her two older sisters when they were children, something they can't quite remember but that left each of them with an identical half-moon scar at the base of their throats. It's been years, but something from their forgotten past has come to haunt them... and it's already taken one sister. Hear about this and other "Spooky Books" on the next episode of Swords & Starships, coming out on Oct 8th!
